

Suggested topics:

- Causes of and/or incentives for displacement (e.g. war, economic/religious/ideological reasons)
- Minorities • Strategies of coexistence • Religion and/or dogma as a factor of inclusion or exclusion
- The impact of different norms and political and social hierarchies in shaping tolerance, rejection, marginality • Transfers of ideas and knowledge among communities • Agriculture, production, and trade as means for inter-communal outreach • Expressions and visualizations of identity in politically, culturally and religiously defined communities

Abstracts of papers (max. 300 words) and brief bios (max. 150 words) should be submitted to the organizers by October 10, 2021.

Organizing Committee

Charalambos Gasparis, NHRF (chgaspa@eie.gr)
Luisa Simonutti, CNR (luisa.simonutti@ispf.cnr.it)
Antigoni Zournatzi, NHRF (azourn@eie.gr)

Workshop sponsored by

COST Action 18140 – People in Motion: Entangled Histories of Displacement across the Mediterranean – WG2 Ideas in Motion

&

Institute of Historical Research / NHRF