

Paper in Motion

Information and the Economy of Knowledge in the Early Modern Mediterranean

Edited by José María Pérez Fernández and Giovanni Tarantino, with Matteo Calcagni

CONTENTS

Opening Remarks

Simone Mangani, Municipality of Prato, Councillor for Culture
Diana Toccafondi, Italian National Council for Cultural Heritage
Leonardo Meoni, Prato State Archives, Director

The ‘People in Motion’ (PIMo) COST Action

Giovanni Tarantino, José María Pérez Fernández

Paper in Motion: Information and the Economy of Knowledge in the Early Modern Mediterranean

José María Pérez Fernández

A Trade History of the Mediterranean Through Thirteen Archives

- Datini Archive, Prato (Chiara Marcheschi)
- Caccini Del Vernaccia Archive, Prato (Matteo Calcagni)
- Adami-Lami Archive, Florence (Matteo Calcagni)
- Riccardiana Library, Florence (Francesca Gallori)
- Monte di Pietà of Bologna (Armando Antonelli, Mauro Carbone, Pietro Delcorno, Maria Giuseppina Muzzarelli)
- Court Registers of Cairo (Nelly Hanna)
- Simón Ruiz Archive, Medina del Campo (Antonio Sánchez del Barrio)
- National Library of Malta (Maroma Camilleri)
- National Archives of Malta (Charles Farrugia)
- Historical Archive of the Istituto Banco di Napoli (Claudia Grossi, Gloria Guida)
- Fugger Archive (Franz Karg)
- Portuguese Archives (Roger Lee de Jesus)
- Amsterdam City Archives (Tessa de Boer, Ramona Negrón)

Paper in Motion: the Catalogue

ed. José María Pérez Fernández and Matteo Calcagni

I. Paper Trails of the Global Mediterranean

II. Paper and Communication

III. Paper and the Spirit of Trafficke

IV. Paper Trails of Human Goods

V. Paper and Politics, Piety and Finance

Appendix (transcriptions and translations)

Afterword: Trade and Tolerance in Early Modern Europe

Giovanni Tarantino, PIMo Action Chair