

CONNECTIONS OF THE PAST AND THE FUTURE: the academic knowledge of human movement in the Mediterranean region and beyond

23rd of September, Vilnius st. 22, Vilnius

09:45 - 10:00

Registration

10:00 - 10:15

Welcome word

Giovanni Tarantino, University of Florence

10:15 - 11:15

1 st session

Giacomo Orsini, Ghent university

"Mediterranean Bordering(s): a genealogical view on cross-border relations in Lampedusa, Melilla and the Strait of Gibraltar"

Umar Ryad, University of Leuven

"Arab Muslims in interwar Europe"

Joanna Musiatewicz, University of Warsaw

"I Do Not Sympathise with Them nor Am I Prejudiced against Them": Europe and Europeans through the Eyes of Ahmad Faris al-Shidyaq"

11:15 - 11:45

Q&A

11:45 - 13:15

Lunch break

CONNECTIONS OF THE PAST AND THE FUTURE: the academic knowledge of human movement in the Mediterranean region and beyond

13:15 - 13:50

2 nd session

Catherine Wilson, Radboud University Nijmegen

Editing "Alinacha's Dream": Facilitating stories and including voices through the making of a book

Andrius Marcinkevičius, Centre for Social Sciences

"The Social Adaptation of Russian Immigrants in Lithuania: Between Historical Experiences and Modern Challenges"

13:50 - 14:10

Q&A

14:10 - 14:30

Coffee break

14:30 - 16:00

Roundtable –

Academics and Practitioners

Catia Antunes, Leiden University

16:00

Closing remarks